

DICE GAME

Introduction

This dice game is adopted to be used with clients. In a fun way you can ask important questions and find solutions for the problems.

This game has 5 parts: knowledge, skills, norms and values, materials, question – mark. For the game you use dice, cards and box with actual materials (the list is added). Using dice you can choose which card you need to read and ask question for the discussion.

Materials and box you need to create by yourself. Question – mark - there is no cards for this picture, participants have opportunity to ask their own questions, or team leader can prepare them in advance. It is good opportunity to discuss actual problems in an organisation at that time.

This game can be play in pairs, groups or individual. Each time specialist is required to participate as the game coordinator. The participant needs to roll the dice and to take card from the deck which according to the picture is shown on the dice.
